

Select the main page (from Figma) show , the button to switch to next page and passing argument to second route.

- Homepage: click user icon to switch to the “profile” page.

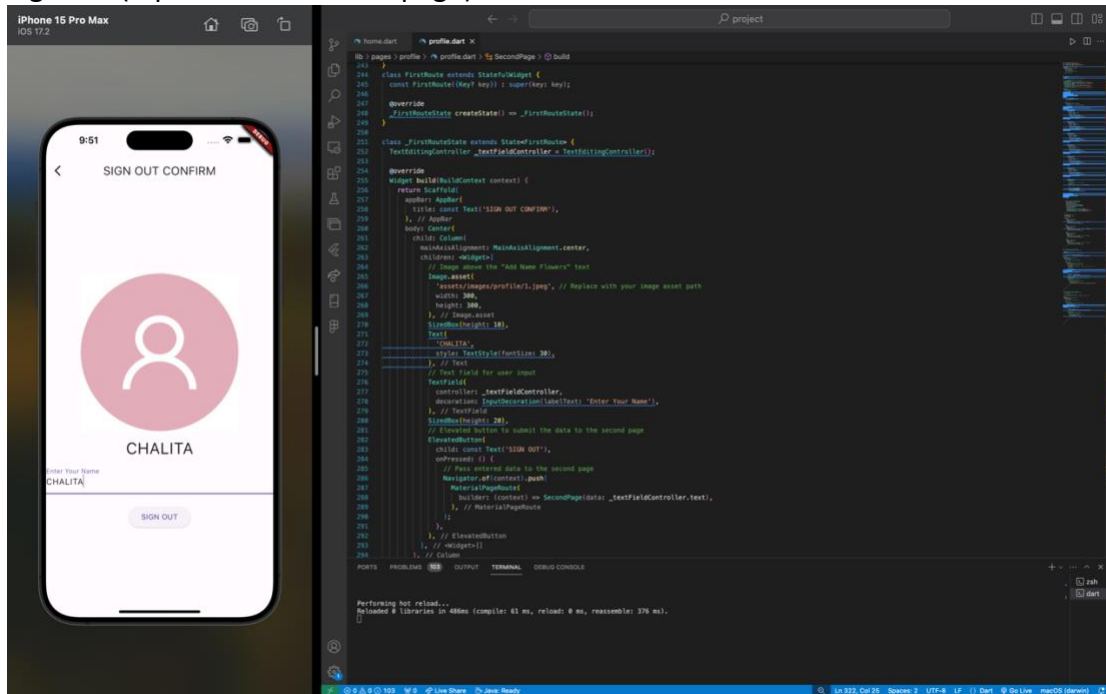

- Profile (passing argument to second route): click on sign out button to input data

At second page process your input data from first page and show result on second page go back to Home page

- Sign out (Input data from first page)

- Complete (Show result on second page): click the go home page button to switch to the Homepage.

